The systematic and practical approach of KDI School, which has a long-standing reputation for excellence, provided me an opportunity to improve my talent and unlock my potential for innovativeness. The highly qualified faculty, a rich reservoir of theory, and practical knowledge and experience has enriched and fortified my knowledge in many aspects. Furthermore, the constant exposure to an international and diverse environment, and the knowledge-sharing sessions have contributed to improving my interpersonal skills. I now have a deeper interest in the development, which motivates me to develop my analytical ability. KDI School surely provides motivating and inspiring learning environment contributing to each student's enormous growth as a professional. I believe that KDI School is an ideal graduate school for any future global leaders who want to develop international perspective in the field of public and development policy. I strongly recommend KDI School to any potential candidates.

Having had the opportunity to study at KDI School, I can without doubt attest to the fact that I am privileged to have been a student at such an institution of excellence in the pursuit of my Master's Degree. Not only does KDI School have highly accomplished faculty as instructors for a rich and cross-disciplinary curriculum, the institution also offers an open educational environment with outstanding infrastructure; all supported by amazing administrative staff. During my time at KDI School, I have broadened my international perspective, fostered my capacity to tackle issues in international politics and global economy, and acquired hugely relevant skills in my line of work. At the same time I have had the privilege to experience the diversity of life and the abundant culture in Korea. Studying at KDI School has certainly had a strong, significant, and valuable impact on my career progression. Thank you KDI School!
